

Remember Me

Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.

Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.

Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.

Life Reflections

Michael Anthony Jones, affectionately known as “SPUNK,” was born on February 28, 1971, and was raised in the Queensbridge Houses of Long Island City, New York, where his name, personality, and presence first became known. From the very beginning, Michael carried a spirit people never forgot. He was charismatic, sharp-minded, confident, and possessed a natural ability to connect with people everywhere he went.

As a teenager, Michael relocated to Elizabethtown, North Carolina, where he was raised by his uncle, Jack Davis, affectionately known as “JC.” With strong roots stretching from Queensbridge, New York, to Elizabethtown and Fayetteville, North Carolina, SPUNK became more than just a nickname — it became a legacy.

Michael built a respected name and reputation throughout Elizabethtown that later expanded into Fayetteville, North Carolina. He received his early education at P.S. 166 in Long Island City, Queens, New York. He continued his studies at I.S. 125 in Woodside, Queens, and later attended the High School of Graphic Communication Arts in Manhattan, New York. Michael had a deep love for basketball, and his talent and dedication earned him numerous trophies through the Long Island City Queensbridge Basketball Association. Beyond athletics, Michael also nurtured a love for God. He attended church faithfully and sang in the Junior Choir at Long Island City Gospel Tabernacle, where he learned about the love and saving grace of Jesus Christ. While away, he also earned his GED. Known as an innovator, businessman, and community figure, he moved confidently through the worlds of music, entertainment, nightlife, and entrepreneurship. As the owner and partner of several clubs and entertainment ventures throughout the years, SPUNK became widely known for creating spaces where people came together, built memories, and found opportunities.

Beyond business, Michael had a heart for helping people. He opened doors for many, gave guidance, shared wisdom, and extended support whenever he could. Through his businesses, friendships, and everyday interactions, he impacted countless lives in ways that can never fully be measured.

A special acknowledgment is extended to Total Package and the many friends, partners, and loved ones too numerous to name. Though every name may not appear here, your role in Michael’s life and journey is deeply recognized and appreciated.

Michael was the beloved son of the late Willie Otis Jones and Pauline Davis Jones. He leaves behind cherished memories with his daughters, Dahlisha Grey, Destiny Jones -Miller (Dez Miller), and his bonus daughter, Legacy Lesane; his son, Ethan Jones; his two precious grandchildren; his godson, Michael Coger; his sister, Crystal Jones Delesbore (Gamel Delesbore); his brother, Willie L. Jones (Deidra Jones); along with a host of family members, friends, business partners, and extended loved ones from Queensbridge, Elizabethtown, and Fayetteville.

From the streets of Queensbridge to the communities of Elizabethtown and Fayetteville, Michael Anthony Jones lived life with style, determination, wisdom, and heart. His journey was unique, his impact undeniable, and his story unforgettable.

The name SPUNK will forever be spoken with love, honor, and respect.
