

MARCH 1

ASK GOD HIS HEART
FOR HIS HOUSE

The Threshing Floor is the place your sacrifice touches Heaven.

The threshing floor represents:

- A place of separation
- A place of testing
- A place of costly worship
- A place where judgment turns into mercy
- A place where Heaven meets Earth

† † † † † †

What Is a Threshing Floor?

Hebrew: גֹרֶן (gōren)

- An elevated, exposed place where grain is crushed and separated from chaff.
- The threshing floor is where God prepares you, tests what's in you, and meets you.

The Threshing Process

(Spiritual Growth)

1. Gathering: God gathers what He has grown in you.
2. Crushing: Pressure exposes what is real.
3. Separation: Wind removes what lacks weight.
4. Guarding: What God produces must be protected.
5. Storing: God prepares mature believers for future use.

Spiritual growth creates weight. Immaturity gets blown away.

Remaining in God's glory keeps you grounded.

The Threshing Floor is:

1. A Place of Redemption (Ruth 3:2–11)
2. Place That Impacts Nations (Micah 4:12–13)
3. The Place of Regeneration & Spiritual Growth
4. The Threshing Floor Points to Jesus (Isaiah 53:5; Matthew 3:12; John 12:24)

REFLECT

Questions for yourself:

- What has God been threshing in my life?
- Is there spiritual weight in me or am I easily blown by pressure?
- Does my worship cost me something?
- Is my giving obedience or convenience?

Questions for God:

- Lord, what sacrifice(s) are You asking of me?
- What needs to be separated from my life?
- What offerings would please You?

Questions for others:

- Am I growing spiritually or staying stagnant?
- Do you see me giving God my best or what's leftover?
- Do you view me as one who offers costly worship?
